

A Yacht Club in Cortina ?

Our Yacht Club at high altitude between the mountains is an established reality which celebrates seven years of life.

Blue and white, the colors that recall the snow and the sea, are the symbols contained in the pennant of the Association. Our flag represents the ideal unity of mountain lovers and sailing enthusiasts into a single family.

In a few years, between the course marks of the most important Italian and international regattas, the Yacht Club Cortina d'Ampezzo has been able to collect a big number of members who recognize the spirit and the objectives of our Association. The Yacht Club Cortina d'Ampezzo, currently chaired by Gianmarco Rinaldi, can look back to the recent past in order to verify the big steps done but, even more important, can plan about what will be the future.

Our club has centered exciting results from different points of view.

The lucid madness that guided us, when we decided to locate our club in this valley, transformed Cortina d'Ampezzo in the best location where sharing our ideal vision of the sport and its values□□.

From this extraordinary site, the Yacht Club Cortina d'Ampezzo had the energy to write the first pages of his history full of excellent results in sailing, the discipline that identifies the personality of the Yacht Club Cortina d'Ampezzo.

Our Yacht Club collected many world/continental titles and victories in various national races in several classes.
